Matthew Porreca AIA LEED AP BD+C

bnim PRINCIPAL

Matthew is a Principal at BNIM and leads the firm's presence in San Diego. In his experience, Matthew's leadership with integrated design teams allows him to produce award-winning designs and high performance buildings.

Matthew has acquired a comprehensive range of relevant skills, knowledge and expertise integrating sustainability throughout all aspects of design. His involvement in large, complex projects has allowed him to hone his ability to creatively solve challenging project issues related to functional design, technical integration, use of innovative materials, long-range scheduling and overall project management. Additionally, his experience with smaller projects has shaped the way he responds effectively to budgetary and scheduling conditions.
