

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY - LEWIS CENTER FOR THE ARTS (WITH STEVEN HOLL ARCHITECTS)

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Interior Architecture
Kansas State University

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATIONS

National Council for Interior Design Qualification
LEED Accredited Professional:
Interior Design + Construction

SELECT EXPERIENCE

Princeton University
Lewis Center for the Arts
Princeton, NJ

San Diego County
Housing and Community Development
Office Renovation
San Diego, CA

Monogram Building
St. Louis, MO

University of Missouri
School of Music
Columbia, MO

Janell Rock NCIDQ LEED AP ID+C

bnim DIRECTOR OF DESIGN FOR INTERIORS

Following her studies at Kansas State University, where she received a bachelor's degree in Interior Architecture, Janell Rock launched her interior architectural and design career in Kansas City. Over the past 22 years, she has played an integral role in a wide variety of highly successful projects, including the Sprint Center in Kansas City and Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Her strong desire to pursue the beautiful and seamless integration of architecture and interior design, along with her client-centered approach, fuels her enthusiasm for every project, regardless of project type.