Kayla Berkson AIA

bnim ASSOCIATE | ARCHITECTURE

Kayla Berkson is an Associate at BNIM with over a decade of experience. She has played an integral role in several projects including the University of Iowa Visual Arts Building, American Enterprise Group Corporate Headquarters Renovation, University of Iowa Informatics Initiative, and the Lutheran Church of Hope-Grimes. Most recently, Kayla has served as Project Architect for the redevelopment of the art-deco, one million square foot former Charity Hospital building in New Orleans, LA, into a multi-disciplinary community hub. Kayla is passionate about good design and its positive impact on the human experience and the environment. She enjoys working collaboratively with clients, consultants, and colleagues to achieve thoughtful and elegant solutions. She is actively involved in the American Institute of Architects at the local and regional level and currently serves on the City of Des Moines Plan and Zoning Commission.

Kayla earned her Bachelor of Architecture with a minor in digital media from Iowa State University.
